POLICY REGARDING TOUR CANCELLATION DUE TO ARMED CONFLICT

A tour will be cancelled if the State of Israel issues an official Declaration of War on a hostile state. Most regional armed conflict occurs in Gaza and the West Bank, so those areas are not included in our itineraries.

In the unlikely event war should break out during your stay in Israel, the airlines will work with the Israeli government and Sar-El Tours (our local partner in Israel) to ensure your safe return home. Any refundable portion of your tour cost will be processed and returned to you.

Please note that if an airline cancels a flight, they are obligated to issue a refund or credit for that flight. However, if a passenger cancels a flight, no refund will be issued by the airline.

NOTE: Trip cancellation and interruption insurance is available through Mission Safe, and other vendors, and is highly recommended.
